

Give the title of the workshop.

Give the url of the workshop website.

Give a short description of the workshop theme.

Maximum 1000 words.

Give a short description of the workshop theme (continued).

Maximum 1000 words.

Describe the scientific importance of the workshop.

Maximum 250 words.

Describe the relevance for and/or contribution to the mission of the Van Riemsdijk Foundation.

Maximum 250 words.

Any VRF-funded workshop must have an open call for papers. If already available, provide the link to the abstract submission page and/or call for papers.

When and where will the workshop be held?

If there is already a (provisional) program for the workshop, provide the link to it.

List all invited speakers to the workshop.
Provide names, affiliation, and the link to their website.

	Name	Affiliation	Link to website
1
2
3
4
5
6
7
8
9
10

Who is the main applicant of this proposal?

Provide name, affiliation, and professional status (e.g. professor, postdoc, etc.).

List all other members of the organizing committee.

Provide names, affiliation, and professional status (e.g. professor, postdoc, etc.).

Do you plan to publish proceedings, or are there any other planned tangible results?

E.g. an application for a research project.

Alongside this submission form, you should submit a budget for the workshop, which lists in detail all expenses and all sources of income for the workshop. The budget should be balanced and should specify which costs are to be covered by the VRF-workshop grant.

☐ I will submit a detailed budget along with this submission form.

In completing this application, the applicant confirms that to the best of their knowledge and belief, the information in this application is complete and correct. They will inform the Van Riemsdijk Foundation immediately if the proposed work-shop cannot proceed as foreseen or if any major change occurs that affects this application. This includes changes to the format of the workshop (e.g. a shift from a physical meeting to online or hybrid).

☐ I agree.

The Van Riemsdijk Foundation assumes that any research carried out in a context that it (co-)funds is done so in compliance with the European Code of Conduct for Research Integrity.

☐ I agree.